

Dragon Gym's

School-Day Camp and Learning Center Program

Gives children a high level of confidence and sets them on a course of lifetime leadership and success.

Dear Parent,

You know how difficult remote learning can be when you are at home full time. Now, schools are going "online", but parents have returned to more regular work-schedules the challenges have grown exponentially. Supervision, socialization and learning quality are immense concerns for all parents moving forward.

This program offers you a structured plan to improve your child's health, self-esteem, behavior, confidence, self-discipline and overall well-being.

Worry no more—your child can be enrolled in a safe, structured, top-quality school-day program at The Dragon Gym!

At our Dragon Gym School-Day Camp and Learning Center your child will also stay physically active and get the opportunity to learn important martial arts and self-defense skills!

Here's what you can expect:

- Supervised "Synchronous" Sessions to make sure that students are focused and paying attention to the teacher
- Monitored "Asynchronous" Sessions to ensure that students are avoiding distractions completing required tasks
- Help with getting set up and logging in at appropriate times.
- Physically Distant Workspaces
- Dedicated Study / Homework Times throughout the day
- 1-2 "PE" sessions per day. Martial Arts, Fitness, or both!
- Time for physical play – dodgeball, basketball, other physical games that are crucial for kids to burn off energy, decompress and de-stress!

FAQs

Some common questions and answers about this program.

1. What if PA goes back to red? Will I get a refund?
 - a. This program will be billed weekly, so if the state mandates change, there will be no need for refunds
2. Who will be running the camps?
 - a. Camps will be run by Dragon Gym supervised by the DG instructors that you already know and trust: Lonnie Beck, Chris Taylor, Tom Palmer, Joey Losito, Joe Grubb and myself. Additional support staff is always highly vetted and goes through all required background checks
3. How many students will be in the program?
 - a. Due to physical distancing requirements we must keep the “pods” small, and there will be very limited availability for this program. We’ve worked this out with the guidance Dr. Strotmeyer (Epidemiologist) based on the available square footage in the gym facilities
4. Masks?
 - a. Yes. Staff and students will be required to wear masks. During the physical training sessions, the children can take their masks off. The nature of the training ensures physical distancing.
5. Social Distancing, Screening, and Sanitizing
 - a. All areas and surfaces are sanitized in the facilities several times per day. And, we go through a “deep clean” every night. “Hospital grade” products are always used
 - b. Every student will be temp screened on the way in (See screening questions attached)
 - c. Parents will only come inside as far as the lobby to drop off and pick up students
6. Internet and Technology Access
 - a. We will be providing hi-speed Wi-Fi for all of the students. However, students will be required to bring their own technology as required by the school (Laptops, tablets, etc). Parents, please make sure devices are charged and send a charging cable.
7. Session Times? And, food?
 - a. Morning Session is from 8a-12pm. Full day session is from 8am-4pm. Full day students will be given priority as spots are limited.
 - b. Students that are staying all day should pack a lunch and snacks. We will have water and some fruits available as well. Packed lunches and snacks should be nut-free.

1. Failure to attend class does not signify or imply notification to cancel this agreement.
2. Student's failure to continue lessons during the notification or program period does not relieve the obligation to pay the remaining tuition balance in full.
3. Undersigned assumes all responsibility for any costs of collection, including but not limited to reasonable collection agency fees, court costs, reasonable attorney's fees, and applicable late charges that may be incurred for default payments.
4. School administrators may make any modifications in the class schedule as deemed necessary. Such modification does not relieve the undersigned of their payment obligations under any circumstances.
5. School administrators may close the school on national holidays, for the purpose of special events, and a period not exceeding four weeks per year for necessary maintenance and other purposes without affecting scheduled tuition payments.
6. The tuition costs for martial arts program are billed on a weekly basis.
7. By entering into the agreement the undersigned grants the school permission to use photographs, videotapes, artwork or other likenesses of the student for marketing, trade, publishing or any other lawful purpose.
8. In consideration of the martial arts training obtained, student agrees not to engage in martial arts teaching practices within a 25 mile radius of the school, or any other school associated with the schools administrators, for a period of 3 years following disassociation with the school, without written permission.
9. Full payment of tuition fees does not guarantee Belt certification by school administrators.
10. Membership is non-cancellable and non-transferable except as stated herein.
11. Students failure to attend scheduled lessons relieves the obligation of the school to provide lessons after the program end date.
12. Undersigned authorizes the use of a disclosed e-mail address for billing purposes and acknowledges that e-mail text may include financial information pertaining to the membership.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Cancellation of ongoing membership requires the completion of an authorized Cancellation Form which can be obtained from the school. The membership is cancelled when all payments due within the specified notification period are paid in full. If a notification period is not specified, a minimum of 30 days notice is implied. The student retains membership rights and privileges until the notification period expires.

TERM agreements are non-cancellable unless stated herein. School administrators may raise the tuition rate of ongoing memberships providing advance notice equal to the cancellation notice stated herein.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

1. Student represents that (s)he is in good physical condition, is not suffering from any heart, lung or other bodily ailment and is in all respects physically fit to engage in the martial arts course. School expressly reserves the right to check the temperature of student to check for a reading within normal range. If, while participating in the course, student feels ill or unwell, has any physical complaint whatsoever, or if any injury of any kind occurs during the course, student will notify a representative of school immediately, and before departing from the school. Student understands that although there may be supervision given during the martial arts course, no doctor or nurse will be on the premises and Dragon Gym Legacy and its affiliates, principals, and agents bear no responsibility for student's health or medical care.

2. Student has been advised that strict observance of the rules and regulations relative to martial arts self-defense training is mandated and includes the use of protective equipment. The school does not warrant that the protective equipment will completely eliminate the possibility of accident, injury, or death but may reduce the risk of accident, injury, sickness or death. If student chooses not to wear protective equipment, student does so at student's own risk and accept full responsibility for any consequence that results. If, while participating in the course, student observes any unusual hazard or condition, which student believes jeopardizes student's personal safety or that of others; student will withdraw from participation in the course and immediately bring said hazard or condition to the attention of a representative of school.

3. Physical contact will be used by employees of the school, other students and authorized individuals, as part of the course of instruction. Student has been advised of such fact and gives full consent to any physical contact as may be required or customary to martial arts training. Student warrants student shall be free from infection, contagious or transmittable diseases. School reserves the right to refuse access or use of school facilities to any student, guardian or other representative that does not appear to be in good health, or is deemed to present a danger, for example due to a higher or lower than normal body temperature.

4. In recognition of student's voluntary participation with the knowledge of the possibility of accident, injury, sickness or death connected with martial arts training, student and student's assignees, heirs, distributees, guardians, and legal representatives expressly waive any right or cause of action of any kind arising as the result of such activity from which any liability may or could accrue to the school, its officers, agents, employees, instructors and/or students. Student further agree to indemnify, save and hold harmless Dragon Gym Legacy, any sponsor, any agents, employees or affiliated organizations from any loss, liability, damage or cost any of them, may incur as a result of my attendance at or participation in any course offered at the school, as well as from negligence or other acts, or omissions, however caused by any owner, officer, employee, or affiliated organization of school.

CONSUMER PRIVILEGES

1. This agreement may be cancelled for any reason without penalty or further obligation within 3 days from the date of this agreement. Cancellation shall be made in writing and issued to the school by dated mail. All money paid by you shall be refunded by the school within 30 days of receipt of this notice of cancellation. However, the school may retain expenses incurred and the portion of the total price representing the services used and completed based on the hourly rate of $35. Down payments are non-refundable after the 3 days.

2. If student becomes disabled for at least three (6) months during the membership terms, you have a right to an extension of this agreement. A letter must be submitted to the school from the student's physician explicitly stating medical condition and estimated time unable to participate in the martial arts program.

3. You may cancel this agreement if the student changes residence more than 25 miles from the school. Cancellation under this section requires written proof of new permanent address, phone number, and name and address of new employer. Cancellation is effective the date of move or upon official notification to the school, whichever is later. A residence investigation may then be conducted.

4. If student becomes deceased, you shall be relieved of further obligation under this agreement not then due and owing.
